LEARN FILIPINO IN U. S. SCHOOL IS LEPER

MANILA, P. I., Sept. 4.—Carefully isolated from the rest of the ship, Marciso Hermosura, a leprosy Filipino youth who has been attending school in the United States, was brought to Manila on the U. S. A. T. Dix, which arrived Monday.

The young man developed the disease after leaving the Philippines and it was not discovered until an epidemic of smallpox in the school he was attending necessitated an examination of the students.

The Filipino was placed in strict quarantine and carefully observed for several weeks before it was finally determined that he was a victim of the oldest plague in history. He was sent to San Francisco, and placed aboard the Dix, which was about to sail. But few of the passengers knew of his presence on the ship.

Arriving in Manila he was taken to the hospital at San Lazaro by Supt. Lewis. Dr. Victor Heiser said yesterday that thus far no history of the students' case has been received by the bureau of health.

After F. M. Beck of Macon, Ga., had instituted suit for divorce he discovered that his proceedings were at least 12 years behind time. Mrs. Beck had obtained a divorce a dozen years ago.
